AAICAMA FAQs Series

Adoption Assistance Basic Information

1. What is adoption assistance?

Answer: Adoption assistance is a program designed to remove barriers to adopting special needs children. By providing funds and services to help parents meet the needs of a special needs child, adoption assistance can aid families of any economic level in giving a child a permanent home.

C.F.R. refers to the Code of Federal Regulations

Page 1 of 1
February 12, 2011

Version 11.02